

Crossing the Pacific Ocean

- 1) In your Main Lesson book, if you have space under Friday's writing, use that (the story continues). If you need a bordered page, you can work on a 10-minute border for the writing you are about to do.
- 2) Look at your notes, in your draft book, that you did on Friday. These are from Part 2 of Magellan's journey which I called, "Crossing the Pacific Ocean". If you choose to, you can also round off this story with the information I gave you in the beginning of Friday's story – which told of what happened to the rest of the crew after Magellan died. Re-listen to or read Friday's story if you need to.
- 3) Write your notes up in your Main Lesson book using full sentences and adding details you think are helpful. You can also listen to Thursday's story again if you need to refresh your memory. (Allow 20 to 30 minutes.)
- 4) Draw or paint your favourite scene from the story. You could attempt something like this if you like or use pictures from Thursday's story for inspiration. (Allow 40 minutes)

- 5) Review your Spanish words. (10 minutes)

Now you are ready for today's story! (Allow 15 minutes)
